REPLICA OF GLENCAIRN,
ANNIE LAURIE'S CHURCH

The romantic story of Annie Laurie is recalled by this tiny church. A faithful reproduction of the one Annie Laurie attended throughout her life—1682—1764. The original church was erected in 1310 and destroyed in 1805.

Dearest Mother & Dad:
Well here I am again. I hope & pray we are all well. Received your sweet postcard during a lunch & tea. Am fine & dandy & found what we wanted. Darling will get a letter tomorrow. The weather is really perfect. Have read a book & a half. Jack is out fishing. Jack says he will write you a letter. Furniture on Fri. Trailer arrives Thurs. & Fri - 97 or probably 100 dollars. Will be up & running & leave then. Jack says there's an awful lot of work to be done. Darling, I'm sorry that I'm not there to help you. I'm sure you're doing a splendid job. Love Lew -
